

CHURCHNET FOUNDATION

Following God's Call to Care for Each Other

God continues to bless the work of ChurchNet. Through ongoing financial support, we enjoy a huge blessing to the many clients in our communities. We remain committed to the care of others and recognize the importance of your partnership in our efforts. We greatly appreciate you and may God continue to bless you and your heart for Him.

1. We enjoyed celebrating our 20-year anniversary of helping others in our area. A celebration night was held June 12th at the Renaissance Center as a guest of the Town of Wake Forest. Food, fellowship and fond remembrances were the combo for a great night!
2. While we have not begun awarding scholarship for students on our new educational initiative we remain very committed to this aspect of our work. Efforts to secure a coordinator of this program have not yielded a committed volunteer but great THANK YOUS go to Fred and Jean Carter who stepped in to help make phone calls to prospective students encouraging their applications. Two students applied but never finished their applications to qualify. We are actively recruiting for a Coordinator to help us.
3. The ChurchNet office continues to operate three days per week for receiving clients but enjoys the freedom and ability to work suddenly to respond more urgently to needs 7 days per week including holidays when offices are closed.
4. We say farewell and thank you to Connie Mangum, an original volunteer and Board member. What a treasure she has been! We also welcomed a new volunteer this year- Rebecca Debusk and have enjoyed getting to know her. She is new to the area and loves ChurchNet's model so much that she wants to start a similar (or branch office) in Franklinton. We intend to move ahead with supporting this thoughtful request.
5. We were once again awarded a grant from the Koinonia Foundation to which we are eternally grateful. We have assisted the K Foundation in their processes by sharing our policies and procedures and will continue to support mutual efforts.
